Dear friends of Adalah,

As you may have heard, Adalah has been shortlisted for the Human Rights Tulip Award, a €100,000 prize from the Dutch Foreign Ministry!

200 groups applied and only 30 were chosen, including Adalah. It is a great honor and a strong show of support for our work.

Now we need your votes to win!

Voting is easy:

1. Go to the Human Rights Tulip Award page for Adalah, press VOTE, and enter your email address.
2. Then check your email. You will get an email from the Human Rights Tulip Award and you will need to open the email and click confirm.
3. Some of the confirmation emails to voters are going to 'spam', 'junk', or 'trash', so please check and then confirm.

This prize would significantly strengthen Adalah's activities to fight discrimination and racism against Palestinian Arab citizens of Israel.

These activities include legal representation to save the Bedouin village of Umm al-Hiran from demolition; demanding schools and health services for Arab children in need; representing Arab protestors detained and harmed by Israeli police; the training of Arab law students; challenging discriminatory laws in the Knesset, and other crucial work.

Thank you for your support to Adalah!

In solidarity and with appreciation, Adalah Staff and Board of Directors

Please share this message to help get out the vote!

Deadline: Wednesday 16 September at 23:59 CEST
(1 hour behind Israel/Palestine)
